The Norton Simon Museum Presents
A Night in Focus: Paris in the Belle Époque
*This lively evening event features art-making,
live music and more for people of all ages*

WHAT: A Night in Focus: Paris in the The Belle Époque
Paris comes to Pasadena in a lively evening program celebrating the exhibition By Day & by Night: Paris in the Belle Époque (on view through March 2, 2020). Throughout the evening, visitors enjoy live music in the galleries, art-making activities, and French-themed food and wine for sale in the café. Plus, exhibition curator Emily Talbot is on hand to answer questions on how artists during this “beautiful era” interpreted the everyday as something extraordinary, as evident in the prints, photographs and paintings on view.

WHEN: Saturday, February 29, 5:00–7:30 p.m.

WHERE: Norton Simon Museum

411 West Colorado Boulevard in Pasadena

Located on the corner of Colorado and Orange Grove Boulevards at the intersection of the Foothill (210) and Ventura (134) freeways. Parking at the Norton Simon Museum is free but limited. Public transportation or ride sharing is encouraged.

ADMISSION: A Night in Focus* is included with Museum admission.

Admission is $15.00 for adults; $12.00 for seniors; and free for Museum members, students with I.D., and everyone age 18 and under. For general public enquiries, call (626) 449-6840 or visit www.nortonsimon.org.
