The Norton Simon Museum Presents the Film Series 'An Invitation to Dance'

Four films featuring dance legends Fred Astaire and Gene Kelly to screen every Friday in February

Pasadena, CA—In celebration of the many dancers on view in the exhibition "Taking Shape: Degas as Sculptor," the Norton Simon Museum presents a film series starring dance legends Fred Astaire and Gene Kelly. Films screen every Friday in February at 5:30 p.m. and are free with general admission. All films are in English.

Top Hat* (1935)

Directed by Mark Sandrich

Friday, February 2, 5:30–7:10 p.m.

An American dancer (Fred Astaire) comes to Britain and falls for a model (Ginger Rogers), but tension, confusion and passion arises when she mistakes him for a married producer.

Swing Time* (1936)

Directed by George Stevens

Friday, February 9, 5:30–7:15 p.m.

A performer and gambler (Astaire) travels to New York City to raise the $25,000 he needs to marry his fiancée, only to become entangled with a beautiful aspiring dancer (Rogers).

An American in Paris (1951)

Directed by Vincente Minnelli

Friday, February 16, 5:30–7:25 p.m.

A former GI who remained in France to study painting (Gene Kelly) is discovered by a wealthy benefactor. He betrays her by romancing a woman (Leslie Caron) who turns out to already be in a relationship with his best friend.

Singin' in the Rain (1952)

Directed by Stanley Donen and Gene Kelly

Friday, February 23, 5:30–7:15 p.m.

A 1920s silent-film star (Kelly) falls for a spunky chorus girl (Debbie Reynolds), much to the dismay of his diva-ish leading lady, in this lighthearted musical spoof of the early days of Hollywood.

ADMISSION: All screenings are free with Museum admission. Admission is $15.00 for adults; $12.00 for seniors; and free for Museum members, students with I.D., and everyone age 18 and under. For more information, call (626) 449-6840 or visit www.nortonsimon.org.
